DR. THEODOSIUS MAR THOMA METROPOLITAN

Poolatheen, Tiruvalla P.O.,

September 13, 2023.

"We celebrate multiplicity and work towards participatory and sustainable development for a nation that is united and related."

The 18th G20 Summit of 2023 was hosted by India in New Delhi. The summit's theme, "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" or "One Earth, One Family, One Future" is rooted in ancient Sanskrit texts and the goal of sustainable development. The phrase "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" emphasizes the interconnectedness and unity of all people and nations. Promoting a sense of global harmony, cooperation, and shared responsibility for the well-being of the planet and its inhabitants is an inevitable notion in India today where people fight each other in the name of religion, politics, caste & tribe. Along with this notion, we need to have an overall development based on 17 sustainable development goals. The role of social service organisations in the midst of internal riots, social evils, disasters and economic disparities are significant. It involves reacting to immediate demands as well as assisting with long-term healing needs.

The projects and programs of Mar Thoma Church always aims at the holistic development and growth of people. Christian Agency for Rural Development (CARD) is a pioneering example. As a nation-wide NGO, CARD has the sense of social responsibility to re-establish tight links with grass roots communities and help them to help themselves. We celebrate multiplicity and work towards participatory and sustainable development for a nation that is united and related.

I pray for God's hand to guide and lead this distinguished NGO with a cloud pillar during the day and a fire pillar at night. I appreciate the dedicated leadership of Rt.Rev.Thomas Mar Timotheos Episcopa, President of CARD and its officials in its growth and development throughout this year. Let`s serve others not because we want to, but because we need to. Let`s allow the loom of diligent effort to create the road for a better future for all. My sincere prayers, wishes and blessings for the publication of the Annual Report, 2022-23.

"ministry towards the least, last and the lost."

September 15, 2023.

The 2030 agenda for Sustainable Development adopted by all United Nations Member States in 2015, provides a shared blueprint for peace and prosperity for people and the planet, now and into the future. At its heart are the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which are an urgent call for action by all countries in a global partnership. "17 Sustainable Development Goals for transforming our world"

Introduction

Rural development in India refers to the process of improving the quality of life and economic well-being of people living in rural areas. It encompasses various sectors such as agriculture, infrastructure, education, healthcare, employment, and social welfare. The State and central government has implemented several initiatives and programs over the years through various policies, programs, and schemes to promote rural development and address the challenges faced by rural communities. Along with the governmental organisations, NGOs (Non- Governmental Organizations) also plays significant roles in rural development in India. They complement the efforts of the government by implementing various programs and initiatives to address the specific needs and challenges of rural communities like Service Delivery, Advocacy & Awareness, Capacity Building, Research & Innovation, Monitoring & Evaluation and Partnership & Collaboration. Thus,NGOs bring flexibility, innovation, and community-centric approaches to rural development in India. Thus, their interventions contribute in achieving inclusive and sustainable development in rural areas.

The task of development is so huge and complicated.It is not just implementing government plans to fix the problem but to achieve maximum growth with a holistic vision and collabora tive efforts involving various departments, agencies and even NGOs like CARD is required. According to Christian Agency for Rural Development (CARD), the scope of development is not narrow but very wide, as it includes not just economic development but the growth on the social front, quality of life, empowerment of Adivasis, Dalits, gender minorities, women, children and backward communities through education, capacity building training and awareness programs. 1. CHILD SUPPORT PROGRAMME

1.1 CARD- LIGHT OF LIFE

Light to Life is a project of The Mar Thoma Mission Board, Diocese of North America and Europe, launched in October 2017. Rt. Rev. Dr. Isaac Mar Philoxenos, Diocesan Episcopa, identified the need of supporting less privileged children who were deprived of their necessities of food and education in the remote villages in different parts of India. Thus, the Diocesan Assembly held on April 22, 2017, decided to take up the project and help such children in need.

Amidst many educational institutions, the socio-economic situation in remote villages of India prevents children from making use of the facilities. The lack of proper guidance, Academic support, nutritious food and fair clothing results in discontinuing the studies. This is where the "Light to Life" supports children. This project includes children from rural, slums, urban,scheduled castes, and tribal communities with poor socio-economic status, suffering from poverty, malnutrition, poor access to quality health services, child marriage, poor school attendance, low learning outcomes, and lack of sanitation. In this context, The Light to Life programme aims at the holistic development of children in remote places in India. Through this programme,we are supporting 2370 students under 13 units in 8 states across India in this reporting year. Mr. Job Renji Abraham working as co-ordinator.

CARD LIGHT TO LIFE PROJECT
NADAVAYAL , WAYANAD

Wayanad is known for its wast tribal population, which is diversified with around eleven subcategories .Wayanad is the district with the largest number of tribals in Kerala. There are more than eleven tribal groups in Wayanad. Tribal groups follow their own language and culture. They speak their own language in their homes. When the schools opened after two years of closure due to covid, the project noticed that the Malayalam words were completely forgotten by the children and they mostly used their own language through the operation of the tuition center. As the school study is in Malayalam, this makes it difficult for them to study in school.

Word writing competition

As a solution to this, the project organized the word writing competition. This competition helped to find and learn more Malayalam words. 105 students were participated in the competition in UP and high school categories.

Letter writing competition and Post office visit

New generation children do not know enough about post office and its activities. The old post office which only delivered letters is being modernized today. Today we get many services through post office.

Today, no one bothers to write or post letters. However, the relevance of letters is not lost. Letters are also useful in drawing the attention of the authorities to the social problems among us. On October 9, the World Postal Day, a letter writing competition was organized under the leadership of the project, followed by a visit to the post office in their hometown.

Since there is no longer a condition of sending letters, children have not even seen inland, post cards and envelopes. It was a new experience for the children to write the letter on the inside and cover and post it. By visiting the post office of their locality, they were able to get to know and understand the post office activities more closely. 90 children of the project participated in the competition.

Word writing contest, letter writing contest, post office visit, the knowledge created by the children was very moving.
